

Lutheran Office for Public Policy in Wisconsin Joins Additional Faith Voices for Advocacy Day on April 29, 2015

People of Faith United for Justice

Wednesday, April 29

9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Bethel Lutheran Church and First United Methodist Church
Near the Capitol Square
312 Wisconsin Avenue, Madison

People of Faith United for Justice is a day-long gathering to learn, discuss, pray and advocate together for social justice issues of importance to all the people of Wisconsin. As a new legislature starts work on the next state budget, our representatives need to hear our values, priorities, and concerns. Together, we can ensure that our commitment to compassion and justice is reflected in that budget.

Keynote Speaker

Hannah Rosenthal, CEO and president of the Milwaukee Jewish Federation, has spent her career successfully advocating for social and economic justice.

Keynote Respondent

Rev. Everett Mitchell's Rev. Mitchell is Director of Community Relations, UW Madison and Pastor, Christ the Solid Rock Baptist Church. His life focus has been examining the relationship of the church to social issues, such as poverty, incarceration and immigration.

Co-Sponsors: Wisconsin Council of Churches, Faith Voices For Justice, Interfaith Conference of Greater Milwaukee, Lutheran Office for Public Policy in Wisconsin, Madison Area Urban Ministry, Milwaukee Jewish Federation, Jewish Federation of Madison, Wisconsin Jewish Conference and WISDOM

Thank you to the Wisconsin Council of Churches for registering participants.
