Farm Bill Action Opportunity

We are in an important period to lift our voices on the Farm Bill reauthorization. This omnibus piece of federal legislation affects us on our local levels. It covers nutrition programs such as SNAP and WIC, environment, trade, foreign aid and rural development. Among us are farmers and ranchers and Indigenous communities and global partners and low-income Americans. The ELCA federal advocacy team is excited to be partnering with ELCA Young Adults to host two young adult-focused Farm Bill Listening Sessions. The farm bill is an expansive piece of legislation that has implications on conservation, poverty, race, education, the economy, and far beyond. These are things that many young adults care deeply about. Further, young adults are the future inheritors and stewards of this land and their stake in this bill must not be overlooked. These sessions will be an opportunity to engage with and to equip young adults 18 to 35 to use their voices to advocate for themselves and communities they care about.
